

Contents

Rhododendron luteiflorum 'Glencoy' (p32)

Magnolia 'Sunset Swirl' (p48)

Camellia 'Hongtian Xiangyun'
(‘Red Sky with Fragrant Cloud’) (p67)

Chairman’s Foreword

Graham Mills 4

Editorial

Mary White 6

Features

My life with magnolias at Magnolia Heaven, Norway
Olav Kalleberg 8–11

A fabulous and historic rhododendron in Surrey
Everard Daniel and Joanne Ryan 12–17

New directions with camellias
Abbie Jury 18–25

The unresolved question of Magnolia sinensis
Maurice Foster VMH 26–29

A few more alpine rhododendrons
Barry Starling AOH 30–36

A Prussian princess or a virgin from Lombardy?
The entangled history of Camellia japonica cultivars ‘Vergine di Collebeato’ and ‘Princesse de Prusse’
Brigitte Wachsmuth 37–42

The amazing variety of the newest magnolia hybrids
Charles Williams VMH 43–52

Mixed blessings of rarity
Audrey Tam 53–55

The Palm Valley Nursery Company of Guangzhou,
China and the ever-blooming camellias
Brenda Litchfield 56–69

Magnolia sinostellata
Erland Edjer 70–77

Harewood House – The development of the Rhododendron Gardens, and early hybridisation
in North Yorkshire: an historical perspective
John M. Hammond 78–91

Mount Edgcombe
– notes from a camellia volunteer
Jim Stephens 92–101

Sustaining deciduous azaleas in a changing climate: lessons learned from the south-eastern United States
Patrick Thompson 102–111

Centenary Cup

The Centenary Cup Photo Competition 2021
Barry Cooke 112–116

RHS awards 2021 117–119

Appreciation

Harold Eldon Greer
John M Hammond and Gordon K Wylie 120–121

Reports & registrations

Notes from the International
Rhododendron Registrar
Sharon McDonald 122–127

Notes from the International
Magnolia Registrar 2021
Matthew Lobdell 128–129

European Camellia Registrations 2021
Courtesy of the International Camellia Society and the International Camellia Register 130–133

Committee

RHS Rhododendron, Camellia & Magnolia Group
Trustees, Committees & Branch
Chairmen 2021–2022 134–135

Index 136–138

Camellia 'Firebird' (p92)

Rhododendron cumberlandense (p106)

Magnolia 'Esther' (p128)